

Consortium for Security and Medical Systems
Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering
College of Engineering and Applied Science
SUNY Stony Brook

Seminar by:

Savio S. Chan, President and CEO, US China Partners

Mr. Chan will discuss how to do business in China. The topics will include manufacturing products, timing market entry, risks and more.

Savio S. Chan is President and Chief Executive Officer of US China Partners Inc., a privately held business development firm specializing in Market Entry, Strategic Sourcing and Marketing Development in China for U.S. companies. Savio also facilitates local and cross-border joint ventures among leading Chinese multinationals as well as Fortune 1000 companies. Formerly, Chan served as Chairman and Chief Executive Officer for Technology Training Solutions (TTS). He oversaw the daily and long-term operation of the company he established in 1996 which had grown in a remarkably short time to be recognized as one of the premier and fastest-growing Microsoft Certified Technical Education Centers in the New York tri-state areas. TTS was selected by the National Minority Business Council to receive the Outstanding Minority Business Award.

China is the leading destination for overseas capital, surpassing the United States, and is now the fourth-largest trading partner of the US. In March 2004, China amended its constitution to allow broader property rights. Beijing will host the Olympics in 2008 and Shanghai will host the World Expo in 2010. Both events offer tremendous business opportunities to US companies.

Time: Friday, February 17, 2006, 1 pm

Place: Rm. 250 Light Engineering

Lunch will be served at 12:30 PM.